

www.everettchristianchurch.org

isaiah 65.18-25

r e v i s i t e d
for my neighborhood

by Rebecca Joy Sumner
rebeccasumner.com

Be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating;

For I am about to create _____ as a joy, and its people as a delight.

My Neighborhood

No more shall _____ be heard in it.

A sad/depressing sound in my neighborhood.

No more shall it happen that _____ a common tragedy in your neighborhood

_____;

or _____

another common tragedy in your neighborhood

_____;

They shall _____

what would prosperity and security look like in your neighborhood?

and _____

what would food security or nourishment look like in your neighborhood?

and _____

a predictive sentence about the goods produced in your neighborhood staying in your neighborhood (literal or metaphorical)

_____.

The people of _____ shall be a people blessed by the Lord.

My Neighborhood

The _____

one group that stands against another in your neighborhood and the _____ shall feast together, the group they stand against the _____ shall

a predatory corporation or organization in your neighborhood

_____.

what would a peace-making service look like for that corporation?

No longer will anyone bring harm, injustice, division, or destruction to _____, says the Lord

My neighborhood